

Our Righteous Father Maximus the Confessor

January 21st

Doxastikon at "Lord, I have Cried"

Mode $\hat{\Delta} \hat{\Omega} \hat{N} \eta$

We, the mul-ti-tudes of mo-nas-tics, hon-our thee, our teach-er, O Max-i-mus, our Fa-ther; for through thee have we learned to walk the path that is tru-ly
-ly straight. Bless-ed art thou, who hast laboured for Christ, and hast tri-umphed o-ver the might of the en-e-my, O com-pan-
-ion of the an-gels, and co-dwell-er of the right-eous and the just. To-geth-er with them, do thou in-ter-cede with the Lord

Musical notation for the text "that He have mercy on our souls." The notation is written in a stylized, flowing script. It features several red accents: a double bar line above the first note, a red 'N' above the note for 'mer', a red 'N' above the note for 'on', and a red 'v' above the final note. There are also red arrows pointing to the right above several notes. The text is written below the notes, with some words followed by a blank line for a breath mark.
