

October 20

Vespers Doxastikon

Plagal Fourth Mode

Gabriel Cremeens

Ἦχος λ π ς Νη

R
(N)
3
(M)
4
(N)

(N) (Δ)
(N)
(B)
(N) (Π)
(N) (Δ↓)

e - fin - ing the gross - ness of the flesh with ex - -treme ab - - - - - sti - nence and per - - sis -
 -tent prayer, and pu - ri - fy - ing thy soul with con - tin -
 - ual streams of tears, O right - eous Fa - - - - - ther, thou didst in no wise suf - - fer thy mind to wan - - - - - der a - -
 - bout in earth - - - - - ly cares;

Saint Gerasimus of Cephalonia

but med - i - tat - ing_ up - - on the things of God, and hav - ing these a - - lone be - - - fore thine_ eyes while walk - - ing on the earth, thou wast whol - ly lift - - - ed up to the heights.

Now as thou more clear - ly en - joy - est the di - - - vine light, and de - light - est more com - plete - - - - ly in the splen -

- - - dour of God, keep us in re - mem - brance_ al - - so, who hon - - - our thee, O

bles - - ed Ger - as - - - - - i - - - - mus.

* while walk - ing on the earth,