

The Commemoration of the Miracle That Was Wrought by the Archangel Michael at Colossae, that is, Chonae

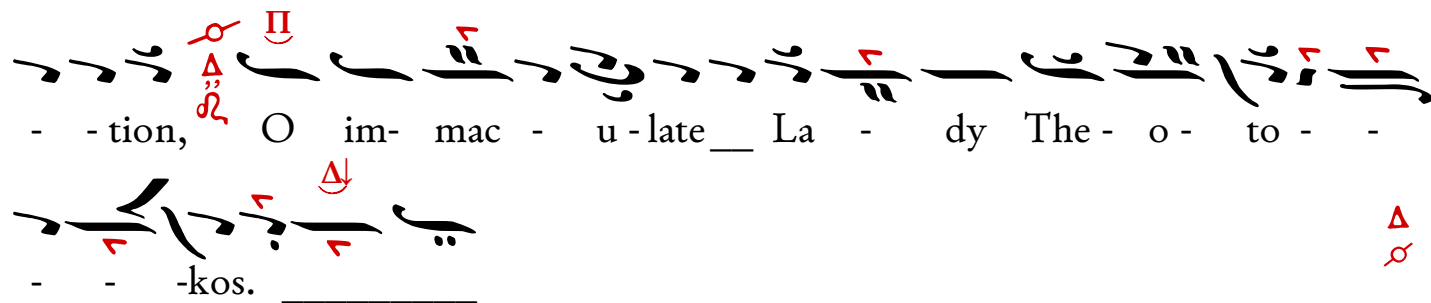

November 8th

Theotokion at "Lord, I have Cried"

Mode $\text{Π} \text{ϩ} \text{Π} \text{α}$

B oth now and ever and un- to the ages of a - ges. A - - - men.

R e- joice with us, all ye choirs of vir - - - gins, for our pro - tec - - - tion, our me - di - a - tress and shel - - - ter, our great ref - - - uge, con - sol - eth the af - flict - - - ed with her hal - - - - lowed and di - vine prov - i - - - dence; where - fore, as is due, let us praise her, cry - - - -ing out: Shel - ter us in thy di - vine pro - tec

- - tion, O im- mac - u - late __ La - dy The - o - to - -
- - -kos. _____

The image shows a musical score with two lines of neumes. The first line contains the lyrics: "- - tion, O im- mac - u - late __ La - dy The - o - to - -". The second line contains the lyrics: "- - -kos. _____". Red symbols, including a cross, a triangle, and a double bar, are placed above and below the neumes. A red Greek letter Pi (Π) is positioned above the first neume of the first line. A red triangle with a downward arrow is positioned above the neume for "mac" in the first line. A red triangle with a downward arrow is positioned above the neume for "to" in the first line. A red cross is positioned to the right of the neume for "to" in the first line. A red triangle with a downward arrow is positioned above the neume for "kos" in the second line. A red cross is positioned to the right of the neume for "kos" in the second line.