Verse: The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaimeth the work of His hands.

 et us ac- claim Pe - - ter and Paul, the might - y lu - mi - nar - ies of the Church; for they have shone in the fir - ma - ment of the Faith more bright - ly than the sun, and with the rays of their preach - ing they have led the na - tions out of ig - no - rance un - to the knowl - - edge of God. The one, when he was nailed to the cross, made his way to Heav - - en, where he was en - trust - - ed by Christ with the keys of the King - - dom; and the oth - er, when he was be - head - ed with the sword, de- part -ed to the Sav - iour, and wor- thi - -ly is he deemed bless- - - ed. And they both ac-cuse Is- ra - el for un- just- ly stretch - - - ing out its hands a- gainst the ver - - - y Lord. Where - fore by their prayers, O Christ our God, cast down our ad - ver - sar - ies, and strength- en the Or - tho - dox Faith, since Thou art the Friend of man.
