

Troparia to the Holy Trinity

At Morning Prayers

Mode  $\frac{4}{9}$  Pa ♯

A <sup>Π</sup>ris- ing from sleep, O Good One, we fall down be - fore   
You, <sup>π</sup> and we sing to You,    O Might-y One, <sup>Π</sup> with the hymn    of the <sup>Δ</sup>
An - gels: <sup>π</sup> Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly are You,    O our God. <sup>Δ</sup>
Through the The - o - to - kos, have mer - cy on us. <sup>π</sup>

Glory...

Mode  $\frac{22}{9}$  Thi - θ

Y <sup>Δ</sup>ou have roused    me, O Lord, from my bed and from sleep. <sup>Δ</sup> En - light - en my mind and op - en my heart and my lips to sing Your praise, O Ho - ly Trin - i - ty: <sup>θ</sup> Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly are You, O our God. <sup>Δ</sup> Through the The - o - to - - kos, have mer - cy on us. <sup>Δ</sup>

Both now...

Mode  Ga φ

T <sup>N</sup> he Judge <sup>Γ</sup> will come sud - den - ly, <sup>u q</sup> and the deeds of each <sup>Π</sup> will be laid bare; <sup>N</sup> but with fear <sup>Π q</sup> we cry out to you <sup>Δ</sup> in <sup>Ω</sup>
 the mid - dle of the night: <sup>Γ</sup> Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly are You, O our God. <sup>Ω</sup> <sup>u q</sup> Through the The - o - to - - kos, have mer - cy on us. <sup>Ω</sup>