

THE HOLY AND GLORIOUS GREAT MARTYR PHANURIUS, THE NEWLY REVEALED

DOXASTIKON AT THE PRAISES

Mode $\text{Pa } \varphi$

A feast of glad-ness hath shone with splendour to-day, the new festival of Phanurius, the much-contending and noble of spirit. For he contended in unknown times and was of no reputation, and all men were ignorant both of his name and of his temple. But when godless tyrants held sway over illustrious Rhodes, and were digging up the suburbs which lay in ruins, his temple and icon were revealed, shining brighter than the _____light. And when by the rul- er's per - mis - - sion, the Saint's church was built _____ a - - - gain, it was shown to be a foun-tain _ of mir - - - a - - - cles by Christ our _ God, Who is tru - ly won - drous in His Saints.