y his tri-al of tor-tures for man-y years, the Mar-tyr Clem-ent, who is won-drous a-mong priests, was deemed wor-thy to at-tain to the de-light of good things that en-dur-eth for ev-er; and he a-bound-eth in the things of God, e-ven he that trained man-y for strug-gles by his own ex-am-ple, per-suad-ing the flesh to regard the things that are a-bove death. There-fore, let us the faith-ful cry un-to him: O cel-e-brat-ed Great Mar-tyr, by thine in-ter-ces-sions with Christ, destroy thē in-vet-er-ate ob-sti-na-cy of our pas-sions, and by thy me-di-a-tions, res-cue us from ___ ad - ver - - - si - - - ties.
